Gather them on your pages fair, In safety keep them treasured there - That they may bring in days to come Some loving thoughts to friends of home. With tender words of love and truth Recall the days of our youth; Glints of bright sunshine catch and hold To cheer us up when we grow old. Time in his flight takes the slumbering years, And bears them away from our sight. The scenes of the past grow dim to our eyes, For ever and ever new visions arise, Before us and draw us away from those days, Whose tenderest memories, hid from our gaze, Are embalmed by our love and remembrance and tears. So let us halt e en old Time, and bid him recall The old stirring warfares, the perils, and all That roused men to action, to deeds that shall be A heritage proud while our land remains free, Casting around it a halo of light.
