He who is true to the best he knows to-day will know a better best to-morrow. March 2 Yes--deeper than conduct or speech are the vibrations of a mans spirit. March 3 Cultivate conductivity! Fit yourself to receive and impart all forms of good. In-taking and out-giving--getting good and giving good; that is our main business. March 4 In planning and ordering our affairs, we ought to consider spiritual supplies as necessities of life; as luxuries, if you please, but certainly as necessities. The bread of earth for the body; the bread of heaven for the soul. March 5 Spiritual culture comes in part from knowing the best things that have been said and done in other times, and that are being said and done in our own times. March 6 Spiritual growth is not expansion alone; it is an inward enrichment....
