The attention of those about to become communicants is especially called to the following decree of the Church, which, notwithstanding its importance, as grounded on the very nature of the Sacrament, is sometimes found to escape the knowledge of Christians otherwise well informed, and sincerely anxious to do right: 1 There shall none be admitted to the Holy Communion, until such time as he be confirmed, or be ready and desirous to be confirmed. Rubric after the Order of Confirmation. the sunday befoee. Tou should begin your preparation for a devout and profitable reception of the Holy Communion, as soon as notice is given in church of its intended celebration. Therefore, on the evening of the same day, when your usual prayers are over, and you are still upon your knees, set before your mind the great work you have in hand, and the great blessing you will soon receive, by meditating seriously and devoutly on the following passages of holy Scripture: From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same, My Name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto My Name, and a pure offering; for My Name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of Hosts. --Mai. i. 11. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the Flesh of the Son of Man, and drink...
