It is one of the most popular books. I am quite late in starting to read this one, but better than never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Link: March 1968 Doesn t Like Mrs. Reeds Article I have read From Boot Camp to Vietnam in the October, 1967, Link. It leaves me with nothing but disgust. After having spent a year as an infantryman and paratrooper in the First Cavalry Division and having endured the worst of Vietnam, I only wish that I and my fellow infantrymen had it as bad as Airman Curt Reed. During my year in the boondocks and having seen more rats and snakes than Airman Reed could ever dream of and having one poncho to sleep on and keep the monsoon off, slept several nights in a rice paddy, being exhausted to the point I didn t care if I lived or not, seeing people an arms reach away get shot up, blown apart, mangled and maimed, having watched a man with his face blown off take four horrible screaming hours to die, having wrapped an arm and a head, which were all that remained of a booby-trap victim and knowing that is what his parents would have to show for a son. My heart is really out for Mrs. Reed and her darling son. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
